History of Original Dominick's Pizza

In 1962, Vinny immigrated to Brooklyn, New York at the age of 12. He wanted the "American Dream". In 1972, he married his wife, Nancy and opened up his own Dominick's Pizza Shoppe in 1974 in Washington Crossing. Over the next thirty years, Vinny continued to share his love of food & pizza with the community by opening several new locations all around Bucks County, all bearing the name "Original Dominick's Pizza". Along with the Washington Crossing location, the Scavo family proudly owns Original Dominick's Pizza of Richboro.

Vinny believed that his success was due to his dedicated customers who love his original pizza recipes, his family & his hard working staff who take pride in their work.

Vinny's wife & children can still be found in his pizza shoppes, continuing his legacy of providing the local community with a place to relax & come together, while enjoying some of the best pizza & Italian dishes around.

As we celebrate our 50th Anniversary, we are extremely grateful for our dedicated customers and hardworking employees. We dedicate this milestone to everyone that has made this possible.
